

You are personally responsible for your postings (including any alterations you make to postings). Therefore, should you not include any misleading or deceptive information in your postings and not carry out illegal or unauthorised activities using this facility. Information in postings may, where appropriate, be made available to ASIC.

If you include hyper-links to other sites, you may be seen as endorsing the material on such sites. It may be advisable for you warn people accessing other sites that you do not endorse or take responsibility for material in the hyper-linked sites.

If you won or have some other interest in a security, or you have any connection with a securities issuer that you might benefit from, you must disclose that fact in your posting. If VANTAGE FX finds or reasonably suspects that you are making illegal or unauthorised postings, your right to make postings will be withdrawn.
